

CLUB MEETS EVERY TUESDAY

Bookcliff Country Club — Noon

Board meets the fourth Monday of every month

*Newsletter Editor: Reford C. Theobald
Song leader: Alan Workman
Pianist: Hugh Plumleigh
Chaplain: Brad Higginbotham*

Executive Secretary: Lisa Clemons

Board of Directors:

President.....Jim Nickerson
1st Vice Pres. ....Scott Fedderson
2nd Vice Pres.....Angela Wetzel
3rd Vice Pres.....Don Kendall
Secretary.....Brian Hollingsworth
Treasurer.....Meghan King
Tail Twister.....Laura Holm
Lion Tamer .....Glenda O'Halloran
Director.....Erik Cornelison
Director.....Dan Lacy
Director.....Ken Brownlee
Director.....Craig Glogowski
Membership Chair.....Shawna Grieger
#

June 1, 2018

“The last thing I want to do is hurt you.
But it’s still on the list.”

June 12 Meeting To Be Held At Masonic Lodge

The weekly GJ Lions meeting for June 12 will be held at the Masonic Lodge due to a conflict at the Bookcliff Country Club.

The Masonic Lodge is located at 2400 Consistory.

The easiest way to get there (actually the ONLY way) is to turn east on Bookcliff when coming off N. 1st Street. Follow Bookcliff as it curves to the north. The lodge is straight ahead at the end of the street.

Trivia Challenge

This month’s theme is the brand names in music.

Over the years, many popular songs have had a brand name in the title. Most common are car references, such as Mustang Sally, Little Red Corvette, or Hot Rod Lincoln.

And, of course, there’s Paul Simon’s “Kodachrome,” which caused some lawsuits from Kodak.

Your challenge is to name the famous hit song of the rock era with a brand name deodorant in the title.

The prize is again a delightful treat from Enstrom’s (7th & Colorado). Entries are by email only — no phone calls, texts, letters, or telegrams.

First correct entry wins.

Send your answer to: GJLionsTrivia@aol.com

Trivia Answer

Last month’s challenge was to name the singer that Paul McCartney once said has the best female voice in the world: melodic, tuneful and distinctive. Elton John called her one of the greatest voices of our lifetime.

Craig Glogowski was the first to identify this singer as Karen Carpenter. Leonard Little was also correct.

Other guesses included Barbara Steisand (Joe O’Connor), Aretha Franklin (Dave Meyer and Harry Griff), and Linda Ronstadt (Brian Mahoney and Mike Foster). Good guesses all.

Correction...

There was a typo in last month’s The Pride.

In listing the members of the board which will be inducted for next year, Craig Glogowski’s name was misspelled as “Ken Brownlee.”

We regret the error.

However, the original accompanying photo was NOT an error. While it may slightly resemble Brownlee, it was actually an artist’s conception of what Glogowski will probably look like in about 50 years.

Ask
The Pride

We get many letters here at The Pride. Members are troubled, or confused, and don’t know where to turn.

Once again this month, we’re offering an advice column:

Ask The Pride.

Members can seek advice anonymously, and some randomly selected member will offer their insight to help answer that letter.

Here’s this month’s letter... and a member’s answer.

Dear The Pride:

I own and operate a small business, and I’m worried about how to effectively advertise. My specialty is fixing cars that weren’t built in America, so I’m in a growth industry (no one builds cars domestically any more). I want my business to grow along with the growing influx of imports. What would you suggest?

Sincerely,
Stuck in 2nd gear

Dear Shiftless:

It’s difficult to know where to spend your advertising dollar. There’s a shrinking local daily newspaper, which is super-expensive. No one watches local TV, and there are so many radio stations in town now that any commercial gets lost.

I’d suggest you look at a specialized niche, such as a unique weekly newspaper. You might look at one that targets business owners and professionals, rather than the hoi polloi readership of a daily rag.

In addition, you should look for one with a conservative editorial philosophy, instead of the Atheist/Communist leanings you might get from some local daily.

Sincerely,
The Pride

Program Calendar:

June 5 — Museum of Western Colorado (Dave Bailey)
June 12 — Program TBA (meeting at Masonic Lodge)
June 19 — Ropa-a-Dope (Hemp & Marijuana’s future)
June 26 — Lion of the Year

Email additions or corrections: Executive Secretary Lisa Clemons at gjlionsclub@gmail.com

Website: www.GJLions.org

Facebook: Grand Junction Lions Club

<https://www.facebook.com/gjlions>

CBC donations were presented to five school recipients at the May 22 meetings. President Jim Nickerson poses with recipients from Orchard Mesa Middle School, Lion Phil Donofrio, Thunder Mountain Elementary, East Middle School, Lincoln OM Elementary, and Rim Rock Elementary.

Rookie Scott Proper

New Lion Scott Proper (pronounced with a long “O”) was sponsored by Brad McCloud. Scott may be the first male Brad has sponsored.

Scott grew up in the little town of Niskayuna, NY, which is the hometown of the late Jeff Blatnick, an Olympic Gold Medalist in wrestling. It’s also where Nobel Physicist Ivar Giaever is from, which is cool, but not Olympic wrestling gold medal cool.

As a youth, Scott was part of the now-defunct organization called the Boy Scouts. Scott eventually became an Eagle Scout.

While in high school, Scott spent a year in Germany as an exchange student. No word on what the USA received in the exchange.

Scott is a Yale graduate (just like former Lion Judge Bill Ela), where he was a double major in Philosophy and German Studies.

He rowed on the Yale heavyweight crew team, lettered all four years, and was team captain his senior year. Crew is a year-round sport at Yale, and has a 150-year tradition there.

Yale is also where Scott met his wife Paulina. She is a lawyer, but currently taking some time off to raise their sons Eric (age 7 years) and Reed (age 8 months).

Scott has always worked in finance, which is a natural for someone with a degree in Philosophy and German Studies.

After time in Phoenix banking and real estate, Scott and family moved to Eagle and then Grand Junction. Scott is the Community Bank President at ANB downtown.

Scott says: “My wife and I moved back to Colorado in 2015 primarily because we love the mountains and the outdoors and think Colorado is a great place to raise our children. I think I can and hope to add a lot of value here (with the GJ Lions) given my relatively unique background and experience in finance.”

ONE BY ONE 2018

Zach Bryant
Gil Davis
Mycy Wilburn

Nick Beightel
Melissa Latham
Amy Carlton

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

We waste time on the Internet so you don't have to.

FATHERS

SOME DADS ARE SO GREAT THEY'LL BLOW UP YOUR PLANET
JUST TO TEACH YOU A VALUABLE LIFE LESSON

SOME PEOPLE AGREE WITH
KNEELING FOR THE ANTHEM

SOME PEOPLE AGREE THAT EVERYONE NEEDS TO STAND

@NFL_MEMES

BUT WE ALL CAN AGREE THAT THE COWBOYS SUCK

“
Be polite, be professional,
but have a plan to kill everybody
you meet.”

Gen. (Ret.) James "Mad Dog" Mattis, USMC

wearethemighty.com

